Allowable Subject Matter

1. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

Regarding claims 1,2, 4-6, the prior art fails to teach or suggest an apparatus for controlling the transmission energy of signals received from a remote transmitter, comprising "suspending an updating of the variable threshold in accordance with said determination; and a demodulator for demodulating the signals and measuring demodulated symbol energies from symbols residing in said signals, and providing said demodulated symbol energies to said power control processor, wherein said power control processor generates said signal quality metric based on said demodulated symbol energies," in combination with other limitations, as specified in the independent claim 1.

Regarding claims 7, 8, 10-14, the prior art fails to teach or suggest a method of controlling a transmission energy of signals received from a remote transmitter, comprising "suspending an updating of the variable threshold in accordance with said determination; and demodulating symbols residing in the signals to produce symbol energies, wherein said generating said signal quality metric is based on said demodulated symbol energies," in combination with other limitations, as specified in the independent claim 7.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
